Objectives and Activities

The objectives of EAI are to Connect, Equip and Represent the evangelical movement in Ireland and to work to promote cohesiveness, build relationships and promote the Kingdom of God in Ireland. EAI engaged in a number of activities aimed at achieving these objectives, including the following:

Connecting: EAI worked to bring together those representing all aspects of the Irish Evangelical movement. This was done through regular regional meetings, ongoing communications, seminars and newsletters.

Equipping: EAI continued to work to equip churches during 2019. Training seminars on evangelism were held, and a number of multi-church events were organised and were well supported. EAI continued to provide advice and guidance on multiple topics throughout the year.

Representing: EAI attended meetings of the Irish Council of Churches, the Inter Church Group and other bodies. We regularly made representations to government agencies and others on behalf of evangelical Churches and individuals on such topics as the introduction of new rules governing the granting of visas to Ministers of Religion and Religious Volunteers. Numerous media appearances were also made espousing an evangelical viewpoint on topics of interest.

Structure, Governance and Management

The Council of Reference met twice during the year and provided valuable insight and guidance. We continue to review the makeup of our Board on an ongoing basis.

Principal Risks and Uncertainties

The company is dependent on the receipts of donations. The principal risk and uncertainties faced by the company are those relating to a small charity largely dependent on receipts of donations from a small number of donors. The company is exposed to liquidity and cash flow risks and monitors these risks through careful budgeting and cash flow forecasting.
